

High School Board To Meet Civic Leaders

The Board of Education of the Arlington Heights Township high school is inviting a group of the active leaders in the various groups and organizations in the district to meet with them at their next regular meeting to discuss the proposed addition and remodeling of the high school building.

Invitations to serve on such a committee are being mailed this week to about thirty persons who might be considered to represent the various groups and organizations in Arlington Heights, Mount Prospect, and the rural areas in the district.

In inviting such a group of citizens to meet with them, the Board hopes to meet the consensus of feeling and opinion in the district regarding the proposal to add to the present building, and if the general feeling is one of approval, then it hopes through a study of the financial and physical condition of the school and district to determine the extent of such additions or changes which are desired by the voters.

One of the peculiarities of the office of School Board member is that after being elected to the job of directing the affairs of the school, no opportunity is given a Board member to ascertain the wishes of the community, and during the past 15 or 20 years almost no public minded citizen has attended the Board meetings to express the wishes of himself or his neighbors.

It is the hope of the members of the board that all residents of the district will consult members of the citizens committee, or of the Board, for information regarding the needs and condition of the district, and that they will express their approval or disapproval of any or all of the parts of the proposed addition.

Each invited member of the proposed committee is being furnished with factual information regarding the school, and after acceptance by them of membership on this committee their names will be published and all vital information regarding the school also will be made available to all concerned.

Local Dairy Farmers Bid For Honors

Seven Will Compete In Pure Milk Association Neat Farm Contest

Who will be the 1938 Neat Farm champion in District 10, Pure Milk Association members are wondering as entries close in Chicago and the Neatest Dairy Farm Contest, 1938.

Last year's silver medal winner, Mrs. Emma Finke of Bensenville, is not entered this year, and of course the Baumann farm at Aurora and the Ray Meyer farm at Roselle, previous gold medal winners, are ineligible for the district title, but compete for the Grand Championship title if their scores equal that of the new District 10 champion.

This is the fifth year of the Pure Milk Association's project which has made the name "Pure Milk Farms" a synonym to city milk consumers for the best in dairy farming. District 10 entrants are:

Bartlett Local—Mrs. Caroline Bohne, Box 42, Ontarioville, Ill., Wm. C. Straub, R. 1, Elgin, Ill. Bloomington Local—Harold Ebenholz, R. 1, Bartlett, Ill.; Ray E. Meyer, R. 1, Roselle, Ill.; Perry Veldhuizen, R. 1, Elmhurst, Ill.

Buttermilk Corners Local—Mrs. Herman Krufus, R. 1, Elgin, Ill.; Louis L. Thies, R. 1, Box 106, Elgin, Ill.

Farms will be judged in August by a judging committee of three PMA members from another district, fellow members who own and operate farms, who know the problems confronting a dairy farmer, who know what is possible and what isn't. Neatness, cleanliness, order are the only things that count. Scoring will be on the following points:

General appearance of farm buildings (all-around view)—50%.

Condition of dairy barn (inside and out) and appearance of herd—20%.

Condition of all other buildings on the dairy farm—10%.

Here are the things to watch out for, say the men who judged last year's contest, the things that are sometimes overlooked and that will count heavily against any farm:

General appearance—weeds, rubbish piles, fences slack and untidy, loose boards on buildings, machinery and tools lying around.

Dairy Barn and Herd—manure in cow yard, cleaning and grading needed, gutters not scraped, broken windows, cobwebs, dirty windows and ledges, chickens running or roosting in barn.

Milk house, equipment and utensils—dirty utensils, dirty windows, dirty milking machines, no screens, strainers in bad condition.

Battery Drops Out But Car Travels One Mile Further

He walked a mile, not for a cigarette, but for a battery, revealed Walker White, 1016 N. Walnut avenue, Arlington Heights, in telling about his southern Illinois trip recently.

It was a 1929 Chevrolet that probably left itself too old to be fed on a battery and discharged it along the road. The 29er bumped along with a never-say-die spirit with lights as bright as ever until too steep an incline brought it to a standstill. White had to walk over a mile back up the road to locate the battery which he found in the middle of the road.

"It's a 'Believe It Or Not' to a lot of people," says White, "but I have two passengers that know it to be true." The generator had evidently generated enough "juice" to keep the lights burning and the motor running.

Operates Own Barber Shop Fifty Years

Frank White, Arlington Heights oldest barber has operated a shop fifty years in this village. He came to Arlington Heights July 19, 1888 in answer to a call received from Frank Fehlman, employed by F. E. Davis. The foundry was in operation and employed a good force of men, creating a need for another barber. Mr. Fehlman had come from Geneseo and his acquaintance with Mr. White was the introduction of Barber White to the men of the community.

Recalling the old days, Mr. White says that Mr. Hartmann is the only other business man of that time who is living today.

Mr. White's first shop was at the northwest corner of Vail and Campbell. He later moved to the present site of the National bank, where he remained 19 years. In 1912 Mr. White built a building on rented land from Dr. Best on the site of the Ida Craft beauty shop. When the new Landmeier block was erected, he moved his shop to his own property at 17 So. Dunton, where he is operating today.

In the old days the White shop was where the public officials, politicians and ambitious young men discussed the affairs of the village and town. Many a party platform and ticket was discussed at White's. The "old guard" of the political parties of the early days recognized the importance of that barber shop in shaping the public opinion of the voters. (These were the days before women had the suffrage).

A number of young fellows learned the barbering trade from Mr. White. Among them were: Fred Kuhn, now in Woodstock and Herman Faelz, operating a shop in Des Plaines.

Mr. White who has completed 57 years as a barber will be 77 yrs. old in November and still able to give a good shave and a modern hair cut. He is located south of the business center of the village, but Mr. White has customers today who have come to his shop over thirty years. Mr. and Mrs. White upon their anniversary extend felicitations to the other local business firms, who have been in operation fifty years or more.

Time has taken many of the close friends and customers of the earlier days, but the White shop is one of the landmarks in Arlington Heights for those old timers who look back with happy memories when they were in the haircuts a quarter for adults and fifteen cents for children.

Palatine Township To Sell Warrants

Palatine township has made arrangements to sell a block of relief tax warrants to the M. V. Vick Co. of Chicago, dealers in Municipal investments.

Sale of tax warrants to take care of the relief situation, was absolutely necessary if the relief was to be continued.

The township owed all the relief money available from the recent tax collection to the road and bridge and township funds so that there was nothing left for current relief expenses.

The last town meeting passed what they hope is an air tight objection-proof relief tax and the sale of warrants to meet current relief needs was at last made possible.

The watch is of yellow gold with 12 diamonds and is inscribed with the initials "E.H.V." A liberal reward is promised the finder who must get in touch with E. Van Steen, 737 N. State road, Arlington Heights, phone 175-M.

TO ATTEND REUNION OF HERTZOGS IN PA.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hertzog of Arlington Heights are leaving next week for Ephrata, Pennsylvania, where they will attend the Hertzog family reunion, celebrating the emigration of Peter and Nicholas Hertzog from Berlin to the United States two hundred years ago in 1738. Over two thousand of the clan will meet Sunday, August 7.

New Law Is Step Toward Road Safety

Judges View Advantages Of Responsibility Act

Expressing the belief that the new financial responsibility law would be very helpful, Judges Neuman and Behrens stated that the whole thing is predicated upon a court judgment, so that if a person behaves himself the law won't hurt him.

The law is not a compulsory insurance law, the Chicago Motor club points out in a special release to this newspaper.

Proof of financial responsibility is required under two conditions: First, if a motorist is convicted of any offense which would result in his driver's license being revoked.

Second, if he has a judgment returned against him for an automobile accident and fails to pay it within 30 days.

Either Type of Judgment

The judgment, according to the Insurance Exchange magazine, may be for either personal injury or property damage and may be for any amount. In the latter case, he must not only pay the judgment, but he must also furnish evidence that he is financially responsible for pay for judgments in future accidents.

The law specifically provides that going through bankruptcy will not alter the situation—one of the most important features of the law in the opinion of the Judges.

Under the law, an accident which can deprive a motorist of his right to drive need not occur in Illinois. "It can happen anywhere," according to C. L. Griffith, insurance agent.

Affects Driving Other Cars

Another factor, he explained, is that the law offers no distinction between accidents occurring while the assured is driving his own car and while he is driving others. The insurance magazine is quoted, "He might just as easily have an accident while driving another car as while driving his own and this accident could just as well cost him his right to drive."

Thus, drive-other-cars coverage can be of importance under the new law.

What is proof of financial responsibility? The insurance magazine gives it as follows: "Proof of financial responsibility may be in the form of an automobile liability policy, with limits of at least $5,000 for each person and $10,000 for any one accident for bodily injury liability and $1,000 per accident for property damage liability; a surety bond guaranteeing payment of automobile damages, or a deposit of cash or securities with the Secretary of State of at least $11,000.

No date is specified as to when the law takes effect, but it is said the law will "have its main force" May 1, 1939, when the drivers' license law, a companion bill also passed at the recent special session, becomes effective. Technicalities as to the legality of the latter have been brought out and it is expected by some that a test case will be instituted to try its validity.

Secretary of State Edward J. Hughes has announced that he will take "immediate steps to put into operation the requirements of the drivers' license law," notwithstanding the issues raised by Governor Horner.

Chief of Police Carl Skoug, commented that the drivers' license law, while not having the "teeth" which could be afforded through a physical examination provision, will probably pave the way for this in another step at a later date.

State to Get Court Records

The Chicago Motor club observes that clerks of court must send records of convictions and unpaid judgments to the secretary of state under the financial responsibility law. Installment payments on judgments may be paid on application to the court, provided the purpose is to retain a drivers' license. Bonds of reliable sureties and secured by real estate. A policy of insurance is also acceptable.

Proof of financial responsibility could be tendered after a judgment had been rendered. In that case conviction or a judgment would not cause the suspension of driving privileges under the financial responsibility provisions.

The club states that compulsory insurance was unfair and burdensome, because it required everybody to buy insurance regardless of whether he is a reckless driver. In the case of the financial responsibility law, the driver is not forced to go to the expense of obtaining insurance or other proof of ability to actually proves himself to be reckless.

Financial responsibility laws are now in effect in 28 states, the District of Columbia, and Hawaii territory.

1938 Carnival A Great Success

Commander Geo. Palmer, general chairman of the Carnival staged last week by Merle Guild Post, Arlington Heights American Legion, says that thanks to the general public and the legion members, the 1938 carnival was a great success.

Mr. Palmer is very well pleased with the manner in which the Carnival was held and the financial success that resulted from the combined efforts of everybody.

Mrs. Turba, a resident of the subdivision south of town, adjoining the Bradley place was awarded the 1938 Chevrolet Master DeLux. She was present when the drawing occurred Saturday night and was too spellbound to see very much to the crowd. However, she is very happy over the new car and can not say enough for the American Legion.

Chairman Palmer and his co-chairman Bauman and Carroll take this opportunity to publicly express their appreciation for the fine cooperation given them by the village board, the park board and the C. & N. W. R. R. "We will be back with you in 1939 and sincerely hope that you will all be with us."

Elk Grove Woman Killed In Accident

Chicago Driver Fails To Obey Stop Sign At Oakton and Elmhurst

Mrs. Henry Moeller was killed Sunday evening when the car in which she was riding with her husband was hit a mile south of their home, by a car being driven by Emil Hendrickson, 38, of 2340 North Albany avenue. The accident occurred at the corner of Oakton and Elmhurst road. Hendrickson had failed to obey the stop sign. The view is obscured by growing crops and Mr. Moeller did not see the approaching car until it was almost upon him.

The impact was so great that the Moeller car was thrown against a cement abutment and Mrs. Moeller was thrown out of the auto to the pavement causing almost instant death.

In Hendrickson's car were his wife, Edith, 29; his brother, Gerhart Hendrickson, also 29, and Nels Godricson, 28, of 5640 Magnolia avenue. Mr. and Mrs. Hendrickson suffered possible skull fractures. Gerhart Hendrickson incurred an arm fracture and Godricson internal injuries. They are in the Northwestern hospital, Des Plaines, where Hendrickson was still unconscious Monday. The inquest was indefinitely postponed awaiting outcome of injuries to the Hendrickson families. Moeller was slightly bruised.

Lena Boettcher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Boettcher, was born in Chicago April 15, 1886 and was confirmed in 1899 in Christ church, Chicago. She married Henry C. Moeller Nov. 20, 1907. After residing two years in Chicago, the family moved to Niles Center and later to Niles, Ill. They came to Elk Grove, purchasing a farm at the intersection of Elmhurst road and Route 58 in 1924.

She took a lot of pride in her home and spent many hours caring for the flowers and lawn. Two daughters were born, Mrs. Paul Hasz, of Chicago and Emilie who resides at home.

The funeral will be held Thursday at St. John's church of Elk Grove with interment at St. Luke's cemetery, Chicago.

Aside from the immediate family there remain four brothers and four sisters.

Des Plaines Urges County Zoning Plan For Outside City

Disannexations from Des Plaines have alarmed the councilmen of that city to the point of asking the county for a zoning commission that will prescribe restrictions within the county, but outside the city.

Encroachment upon property values was feared by the rapid increase in building in unrestricted areas. Property of more than 20 acres cannot be prevented from leaving the city providing that such action does not isolate other land from the city limits.

Recent legislation authorizes county boards in the state to appoint Zoning Commissioners for the purpose of adopting and enforcing appropriate zoning restrictions for such unincorporated areas lying outside of cities and villages.

Negroes Hit Tree At Arlington's Most Dangerous Corner

Four negroes on their way to Delavan, Wis., at 2:35 a. m. July 22, crashed a tree at the intersection of State road and Northwest highway. The driver claimed he was watching another car make a left hand turn. Injuries were serious enough to keep them in a hospital two days.

Lightning Destroys Barn

Rain and Fire Dept. Save Home on Wettermann Farm

Lightning caused the destruction of the barn and contents on the John Wettermann farm on Devon and Busse road Monday evening. The continued heavy downpour of rain and the efforts of the Mt. Prospect Rural Fire Department saved adjoining buildings and the residence which were only a short distance from the barn.

Mr. Wettermann was gazing out of the window of his home at 9:45 and saw the flash of lightning as it struck the northwest corner of his barn. He rushed out of doors, but found that the barn was a mass of flames which appeared at every door and window. He was unable to reach his team of horses which he prized highly and efforts to remove an auto in the barn was unavailing. He braved flames to get from the burning structure to his passenger car, which was protected by a wall.

A call to the Mt. Prospect rural fire department was promptly answered.

The fire department bent its efforts to save a chicken barn and the residence, the high wind throwing burning embers against those structures. Neighbors arrived with milk cans of water and aided in the work, but the heavy downpour of water that was part of the electrical storm was a strong ally. A large elm tree also served as a protection to the residence.

The loss is very heavy due to the practice of Mr. Wettermann of keeping his machinery under cover. The only tools that were not in the barn were a truck and tractor which were in an adjoining structure. It is estimated that the loss amounts to $3,500, one of the worst farm fires in recent years in the territory served by the County Mutual Fire Insurance Co., of Mt. Prospect, which carried the insurance.

Natl. Bank Properties To Be Sold

The First National Bank building in Palatine, together with the Palatine Floral Co. property and several vacant lots which are the property of the closed bank, will be sold at public auction in the bank building Friday, July 29 at 10 a. m.

The receiver's sale is in accord with the instructions of the Comptroller of Currency at Washington. The federal government is taking steps to close up the business of many of the closed National banks.

The properties have all been appraised and any bid will have to be approved by the Comptroller of Currency before an actual sale takes place.

The appraised values of the Palatine bank properties are far higher than any bid that will be received, so it remains to be seen how fast the properties will actually be sold.

But anyone looking for a bank building or a good greenhouse property or some good vacant property, will have a chance to put in a bid at the auction next Friday.

Cook County Board of Appeals Hears 19,000 Cases

Cook county board of tax appeals will complete the hearing of 19,000 complaints on real estate tax bills on July 29.

The officials had expected to have about 6,000 complaints, but before the taxpayers got through protesting there were 19,000 complaints on file against the 1937 tax bills.

The board has been conducting hearings for many weeks and will complete the job according to John F. Delaney, chief clerk of the board, on July 29.

The proper time for filing real estate protests is immediately after the tax bills are received.

It is now too late to protest the 1937 valuations and any complaints against the 1938 tax should be filed immediately upon receipt of the 1938 tax bill which will be early next spring.

13 Stonegate Lots Have Narrow Escape

With 26 pages of plans covering the Foundry road paving, it was not surprising that Arlington Heights officials did not discover that the closing of the "curve" east of the Arlington Seating Co. is part of the specifications of the Foundry road improvement.

Thirteen lots facing that curve would have no frontage if the plans of the highway department are followed.

Mayor Flentie learned Monday that specifications which the village had approved some time ago called for the elimination of that particular stretch of pavement and street. The mayor immediately got into communication with the state highway department, the street is to be repaved and everything is lovely.

The removal of present pavement of the curve is necessary as it does not meet the new grade of Foundry road.

Incidentally, the plans also call for the removal of 100 trees along Foundry road and their replacement with 400 new ones. All light posts must also be moved nearer the property line.

The item appearing in last week's Herald regarding the erection of new poles in Stonegate, was in error. The poles are to be placed in Sherwood subdivision.

Reporter Finds Brick Stove In Farm House

When visiting the John Wettermann farm where the barn was struck by lightning Monday night, the reporter chanced upon a brick oven, a relic of early days. The oven is in the summer kitchen of the Wettermann family in the room where the family prepares and eats its meals. A huge caldron kettle holding half a barrel of water is built in the stove and is used on cleaning, wash days and for the heating of water for baths.

The Wettermanns do not know the history of the oven except that a member of the Tonne family, which formerly owned the farm, and who had called on them that day remarked that the brick oven was in the house when she was a little child, nearly seventy years ago.

The kitchen was part of the original farm home and was so well constructed that it is today used by the Wettermann family for its original purpose.

There is, however, a modern chimney, extending from the stove through the roof, but the door, through which wood is placed, is the same as installed originally. "It only takes a few minutes," stated Mrs. Wettermann, "to get that oven hot."

Miss Jackson On Vacation

It's vacation time for Miss Jackson, community nurse, who is taking a three weeks rest between Arlington Heights and Joliet after August 1. Village health service will be reached by calling Mrs. M. K. Parker, 915 N. State, phone 58-J or the village hall, phone 6.

Record Play On Classic At Arlington

A record play of over $108,000 went through the mutual machines at Arlington Park last Saturday when a fine crowd of nearly 30,000 bet that amount on the Arlington Classic, the record for the race.

A total of $643,000 passed thru the machines on the eight race program, the second high amount of the season.

The track was in bad shape following the heavy rains of Friday and the much favored Menow and Howard entry, both ran out of the money.

The Arlington Park meeting comes to a close this Saturday with the running of the Arlington Futurity, the rich two year old stake and the Arlington handicap for older horses.

These two stellar attractions will bring to a close a successful season at Arlington Park, while attendance and mutual play may fall a little short of last season, the meeting as a whole has seen good crowds and brisk play and has been far better than many meetings of recent years.

Horses have been racing at Arlington from a wide variety of tracks, big, little, good and bad and this bringing together such a wide range of racing material has made the work of the handicappers particularly hard during the meeting.

But it has been a great meeting in the opinion of both fans and horsemen and when the last "official" call floats over the stands Saturday afternoon the horsemen and the fans will already be making plans for coming back to Arlington Park in 1939.

"Good bye and good luck."

Use of Sawdust to Protect Ice

Early in the last century a young man in Massachusetts named Frederick Tudor called upon an old sea captain and said he wanted to take on a cargo of ice for Martinique. Told by the captain that it could not be done for the reason that the ice would melt, young Tudor persisted. He found that by covering ice with sawdust it melted very little. So a shipload of ice went forth to Martinique as one of the most unusual cargoes of American products ever to sail into a foreign port.

DOG DAYS

A recent bulletin issued by the Illinois State Medical Society relating to dog days, is as follows: Do You Know—

Thousands of people own dogs, but not all of them know how to take care of these pets? Treat them fairly. Do not let them wander where they come in contact with stray dogs and where they may be bitten and given rabies. Keep your dog on a leash when he is out doors. Stray dogs are a menace to your dog and your child.

Female dogs are gentler with children than are males? German police dogs bite more frequently than do other breeds. Long haired dogs develop rabies less frequently than short-haired dogs because of the greater opportunity for the removal of the infectious saliva by the coat of the former.

They landed about 26 fish between them, but were sorry not to find any with "lucky" tags attached.

THE HERALD QUESTION BOX?

A NATIVE REPLIES TO HERALD QUESTIONS

My dear Mr. Paddock: Replying to published questions appearing in last week's issue of The Herald permit me to submit the following answers which, believe me, are the result of a week's pondering on my part. I hope same may help to clarify the puzzlements. Keep the Question Box alive by all means. It can serve as the unseen voice of free speech. I'm for it 100%.

Sam Musing.

Question No. 1. If the Park District expects to realize a profit on the use of water in the swimming pool there should be no argument as to whether or not they should pay the water department for the water furnished at the same rate other industrial and commercial users pay.

Question No. 2. Zoning laws are supposed to regulate the orderly growth of a community to a pre-conceived plan. However zoning laws cannot change existing instances of large homes in the residential district that are big enough in size to house several family groups in comfort. I believe that such homes should be altered into flat buildings providing the immediate neighbors do not object. Such homes, however, should retain an exterior single family home appearance. We have had an experience in the past with tenement houses and they have always presented a problem. The remodeling of dilapidated structures into tenements for revenue only is bad for any neighborhood. But the old substantial homesteads of pioneer families should be eligible for remodeling into apartments if the neighbors agree.

Question No. 3. If your host cannot provide private parking space for your automobile in his garage, yard or driveway we suggest that you run same on the parkway and hang a few red lanterns on same. These may be obtained from a prominent mail order house at a very nominal cost. Oh, yes, after you have your car properly decorated with colored lights, notify the police department to keep an eye on it.

Question No. 4. The public parks belong to all of the people and the old question of personal privilege enters into the ball playing and carnival angle in the parks. Many individuals forget that their rights as individuals are very closely hedged in by the rights of every other individual. Carnivals and ball games should be held in the places provided for them and not in the streets or parkways of the main business district.

Sam Amusing.

First Class Reunion For Arlington Heights

A total of fifty-nine '35 graduates, friends and faculty members gathered in Deer Grove Sunday for the first class reunion ever to be held by a high school graduating class of Arlington Heights. Of the 63 members of this class, 33 were present.

The group began to gather at the new shelter in Deer Grove at noon. Gaiety ran high as old classmates greeted each other; some for the first time since graduation night, three years ago.

Musical entertainment was furnished by Melvin Prest and his piano accompaniment. Mr. Conger, high school principal, spoke informally of his pleasure at seeing the group get together. All those present voted unanimously for a continuance of such gatherings. The committee of ten that planned this picnic is to continue their work and plan another social gathering in the near future. Virginia Weber and Lewis Helm will replace Miriam Noves and Douglas Milligan who will return to their respective colleges in the fall.

The success of Sunday's gathering led many to believe that Arlington high school graduates should have an alumni organization. The class of '35 hopes that their first attempt at a reunion will start the ball rolling for another class picnic.

Have We Forgotten?

That the American Legion membership includes those boys who in 1917-1918 risked their lives for the welfare of this country.

That the boys who answered their country's call twenty years ago now have accepted civic responsibilities that they are attempting to meet for the further protection and liberty of the coming generations.

The Legion is organized to carry on the work for which many of their comrades dropped by the wayside when a bomb burst, hand grenades exploded or shrapnel fell from overhead.

The Legion is not a selfish organization. We are a group organized for service to the community, state and nation.

Our membership is well over a million men and stands for one ISM and that is Americanism, ONLY.

We feel that the citizen who complains about our five night carnival has forgotten the promises that were made to the boys of 1917-1918 or the service we as a group have given since that time.

Our standards, our aims and our service to the community today should be sufficient in the minds of the average citizen to cause him to turn a deaf ear to the selfish complaints that are made to the village board each carnival time.

We gave days and months in the trenches; all we ask in return is five Carnival nights each year.

COMMANDER GEO. L. PALMER

Blaming Cow For Big Fire Was 'Chicago' Film Poser

Prometheus, Nero and O'Leary; these are the names of the great fire-bringers. Prometheus has always been a hero. Nero is still one of the great villains of history. But there's always been some doubt about where the O'Leary's stood. Those doubts the 20th Century-Fox producers of "In Old Chicago" set themselves to resolve with a result which will be apparent at the Arlington Theatre on Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

One school of thought maintains that it was indeed Daisy who kicked over the lamp and started the blaze, but that it wasn't Daisy's fault.

The second approach to the cause of the fire blames Daisy. She was a cow with a mis-directed mind of her own according to this theory.

Then there was an earnest group who stoutly asserted that neither Daisy nor the O'Leary's had anything to do with the holocaust. The thought of these people was embodied—one might almost say embalmed—in a little pamphlet, entitled, "Inquiry Into The Causes Of The Chicago Fire; proving it couldn't have been started by the hand of a cow." In absolving the O'Learys and their bovine adjunct of all blame, the author made use of a diagram and two maps designed to show that the fire which some observer saw in the O'Leary's barn was really a reflection from some other blaze. It was all pretty involved, but the O'Learys came out of it with fine characters.

Oh-Da-Ko-Ta Attended By Troop 7 Scouts

by KAY SEBERT

Oh-Da-Ko-Ta, the Boy Scout Camp of the Kenosha Council near Burlington, Wisconsin, has a capacity crowd of campers each week this year. Even with a larger crowd, the camp still has had no accidents, so far.

The program of a typical camp day begins with a cannon being shot off at 6:30 to waken the campers. At 6:40 the flag is raised in a ceremony. Breakfast at 7:00 is followed by camp clean-up and inspection. From 9:00 to 10:30 is a period in which handicraft articles are made and Scout tests passed. At 10:30 is swimming and dinner comes at noon. From dinner till 2:00 is rest hour. The next hour, the same as at 9:00, 3:30 is swim time. Retreat, the lowering of the flag is at 5:00; supper following. Supper is followed by a boating period and an evening game or program after which is taps.

Each week the best all-around camper is selected as the Honor Camper of the week. An alternate is also chosen. Late in August, the Honor Campers are taken on a camping trip in Northern Wisconsin. If an Honor Camper cannot go, the alternate does. For the week of July 17 to 24, Jack Ryan of Park Ridge was chosen Honor Camper and Kay Sebert of Arlington as alternate.

The big event of last week was Backward Day on which everyone wore their clothes backward, and the program changed so that supper and breakfast were reversed. Everyone had fun then.

Each Saturday afternoon is a Water Carnival, the four units competing in the different swimming and diving events. Of the four carnivals this year, Base Camp has won all.

At the Rifle Range, the proper care and use of a firearm is taught. Also advancement in the National Rifle Association is acquired. Camp is the ideal place for advancement and training in Scout lines. It is a fine place for recreation. All attending this year hope to go again next year.

Behind Scenes In American Business

By John Craddock

New York, July 25.—Business—No let up appeared last week in the slow but persistent march toward recovery which was signalized a month ago by a dramatic upswing in prices of corporate stocks and commodities. Shoe retailers, along with other dealers in consumer goods, reported a distinct improvement in sales. With shoe prices generally lower than last year, shoe merchants are making every effort to duplicate this year the 1937 sales volume of nearly three pairs for each person in the U. S. From Detroit came word that July sales of new automobiles may be better than the June total of 188,000 cars. Meanwhile, it is reported that car dealers are meeting with success in reducing the number of second hand cars on the market. News from both the steel and electric power industries is encouraging. Steel mills are operating at 36 per cent of capacity, the highest rate thus far in 1938, and power production last week was the highest since January 29.

Washington—The U. S. Treasury, it was disclosed last week, will ask Congress to remove future federal, state and municipal bonds from the tax exempt class, to extend the income tax to federal employees and to permit states to tax federal employees within their borders. Most businessmen consider this a worthy aim.

Taxation of government bonds should help businessmen to raise capital. Suppose a retired businessman has $100,000 to invest. If he puts it in government bonds at 3 per cent his annual return would be $3,000,000 upon which no tax would be levied under present laws. In order to give him this much net return, private business would have to offer him at least 10 per cent on his money, or $1,000,000 a year. Because after he'd finished paying the approximately $675,000 federal and state income tax on the $1,000,000 his actual income would be whittled to $325,000. Obviously men of wealth at present are not anxious to risk their money in private business when in many instances they can get the same net return by investing in relatively safe government bonds.

Things to Watch For—Combination comb and brush, so that the hair can be combed and brushed in one motion. Rubber flower pot; when the earth cakes around the plant, it can be broken up by merely squeezing the pot. Paper bag within the cloth bag of a vacuum cleaner; dirt collects directly in the paper bag, which is removed bodily and discarded without exposing contents. Photographic paper that can be developed into a picture merely by exposing it to sunlight.

ANNUAL FESTIVAL

Park Ridge is holding their twelfth annual summer festival at Playgrounds Park, August 1 to 7. Over 20,000 persons are expected to attend.

Buffalo Shuts Out Evergreen

Buffalo scored 7 runs in the 5th inning and went on to trim Evergreen 9 to 0. Only 27 men faced Nick Herf in the game. Buffalo played errorless ball and made several good plays.

Nick Herf allowed only 6 hits and gave but one walk. Joe Firnbach had a perfect day at bat with 2 singles and a walk. Other players who obtained 2 hits were R. Bore and Eddie Gershefski.

Gaures Beat Heidorns

Gaures won their fifth straight victory by a 5 to 2 score to sweep the second round play. Gaures scored one run in each of the first 3 innings to get off to a lead which they never relinquished. The defense of both sides was terrible. There were 12 errors committed in all.

Lefty Sword pitched good ball and was ably backed up by the hitting of Carl Huber and L. Brodman. In the 6th inning a dispute arose and L. Brodman came in so fast from right field the boys are trying to get him a match with Stagehand. Fredricks and W. Rose obtained 2 hits apiece for Heidorns.

Gaures Win In Extra Innings

In the most thrilling ball game of the year Gaures beat Heidorns by a 6 to 5 score in 9 innings. Heidorns made 7 errors and practically handed Gaures the game on a silver platter. Heidorns scored one run in the first and 3 in the second to take an early lead, but Gaures came back and tied it up with 2 runs in the last half of the second and 2 in the third. The game then developed into a pitchers duel with Gaures taking a 1 run lead in the fifth. Heidorns scored the tying run in the seventh with 3 singles. Neither team threatened in the eighth. In the ninth Heidorns should have had a run, but Koenig fell rounding third and was cut down. Gaures won the game in the last half on singles by Wolf and Sadecky and an error.

Steve Urlik pitched a beautiful game, allowing Gaures only 2 earned runs in nine innings. Luke Sadecky was the star for Gaures. Besides catching a good game, Lou got 2 hits and scored the winning run. Wally Henniman poled out a home run and a single. Rolle Koenig played a bangup game around second base for Heidorns. Rolle also poled a double and 2 singles. Earl Fredricks and Art Wolf obtained 2 hits apiece.

Red Wings Lose To

Firemen 6-1; Beat Chicago Cardinals 10-6

In a twilight game played Thursday, July 21, the Chicago Firemen again took the measure of the Red Wings for the second time this season. Prussing and Callahan, who handled the pitching chores for the Firemen, did very nicely, holding the local boys to 2 lonely hits. A single in the first inning and a single by Schaefer in the second. The Red Wings' lone hit in the 5th inning. Firnbach was hit by a pitched ball. Wahl drew a base on balls. Frank Brodman was safe on an error by the second baseman filling the bases. Firnbach scored when Al Pedersen hit into a double play.

The Firemen's pitchers were kept out of a lot of trouble by some very classy fielding by Sheridan, the Firemen's catcher. In the 5th inning he had to fall flat on his back and take a wide throw to complete a double play. A nice piece of work, I would say. The Firemen got 2 runs in the second on a mixture of 2 hits, an error and a fielders choice, and 3 runs in the third when McNamara teed off on one of Mel Kehe's slants for a long home run with 2 men on base.

A very nice crowd was out to see the game and even though the home team lost, it was a good game to watch.

On Sunday, July 24, the Red Wings won from the Chicago Cardinals in a free hitting contest 10-6. In all 26 hits were made in the game, the Red Wings getting 14 of them and the visitors 12. The Cardinals scored 2 runs in the first inning on 2 singles and a triple, but the Red Wings went them one better, getting 3 runs on 2 hits, a walk and 2 errors by the third baseman.

Both teams scored twice in the second inning, the Cardinals getting their runs on a walk and 2 hits after two men were out. They picked up a run in 6th and 8th inning to complete their scoring for the day. In the 2nd for the Red Wings, 4 consecutive singles scored 2 runs, and in the third, a triple by Frank Brodman, a triple by Al Pedersen, and a single by Willert scored 2 more runs, enough to win. The Red Wings added 1 more in the 5th and 2 more in the 8th for good measure. Al Pedersen sure had his hitting clothes on, getting a single, double and triple, and a base on balls in 5 tries. Harold Firnbach also got 3 singles in 5 times up. A few of those hits that they didn't need in the Sunday game, could have been used to good advantage last Thursday against the Firemen, which might have changed that score considerably.

On Sunday, July 31, the "Gabby" Hartnett will be here. This team is sponsored by "Gabby" Hartnett himself, and they have built up a good reputation in and around Chicago. Although "Gabby" will not be here in person, you don't want to miss seeing this team play ball. They have a strong aggregation, and will put up a good game. Game will start at 3 p. m. so how about a big crowd.

On Sunday, Aug. 7, the Red Wings will play Summit here at Recreation Park, and on the 14th, the T. J. Bowler cup series will begin. So there is still plenty of baseball ahead.

DES PLAINE'S WOMAN IS ONE OF HEIRS TO $5,000

Mrs. Tillie Keller of Des Plaines, is one of several heirs to the $5,000 estate of her sister, Louise Kolze, who died intestate in Chicago, July 4. The estate will be divided between her two brothers, sister and 12 nieces and nephews.

Cleanliness Once No Virtue

Cleanliness wasn't always considered a virtue. Back in the Sixteenth century, tongues wagged if a woman sought attractiveness by washing her face too often. Once or even twice a week was permissible and even advisable.

VICISSITUDE

I know a field where grasses in the wind
Bend always with a grace too high for quens,
And each proud stalk holds royally a mind
Above devising vulgar ways and means.

The hours go by—they say a grace or choose
Jewels to wear and make them fine with pearls;
Of if they dance, a filmy web they'll use
And wrap them round with veils in shimmering swirls.

Where lifted wands uphold a tent's white fleece
They'll drain the sun-cups while the sky is blue,
And talk of this and that or hold their peace
When beggars pause on dusty wings to sue.

The purple bloom is sweet upon the air
And fragrant wains jog slowly down the way—
These tall young queens who lived so proud and fair
Are riding home upon a load of hay!

Thoreau says, let no one boast he has eaten blueberries unless he has himself picked them—presumably true of gooseberries, raspberries and blackberries—besides the thorns, there are a myriad of stinging insects among these bushes—do the brambles hire these winged stingers in defense of their fruit or is it some C I O project?—we should delight to see a sit-down strike among the gooseberries.

S'Amuser.

Former Palatine Police Officer Is Gun Fight Hero

Harold Haight, former Palatine and Park Ridge police officer, now a detective in Chicago, was the hero of a gun fight recently in which an ex-convict was fatally wounded. He served on the Palatine police force 10 years ago.

Haight was driving his own car at Roosevelt road and Keeler avenue when he recognized Alex Rossi, who had escaped from three policemen a few hours earlier. The ex-convict boarded a street car, and Haight did likewise a few blocks farther east.

Rossi surrendered and was accompanying Haight to the Fillmore police station when he suddenly turned and waved a gun out. It failed to discharge and Haight shot him through the back. Rossi died a few days later.

AT THE CATLOW

Although Taylor holds the reputation of being one of the best-dressed men of the screen, he discards the title temporarily for his role in "Three Comrades," playing currently at the Catlow Theatre. It consists of two second-hand, ready-made suits bought at unclaimed suits in a Main street store and a full-dress suit.

On Saturday for one day only, at the Catlow Theatre, 20th Century-Fox present Victor McLaglen, Brian Donlevy and Louise Hovick (Gypsy Rose Lee) in "Battle of Broadway."

"The Adventures of Marco Polo," comes to the Catlow Theatre Sunday and Monday. Cooper, in the title role, is supported by a notable cast including Sigrid Gurie, Norwegian importation who makes her film debut as the Chinese Princess with whom he falls in love; Basil Rathbone, Ernest Truex, Geo. Barbier, Binnie Barnes and Lotus Liu.

An unsung character actress who has been stealing scenes from Hal Roach—MGM players for fifteen years makes her latest appearance in "Swiss Miss," Laurel and Hardy musical production coming on Tuesday to the Catlow Theatre.

She is Dinah, veteran comedy burro, caretaker of the Roach ranch for fifteen years.

"Swiss Miss," a musical-comedy extravaganza laid in the Swiss Alps, presents Laurel and Hardy in their first co-starring appearance in more than a year.

Opening on Wednesday for three days at the Catlow Theatre, "Three Blind Mice" stars Loretta Young and Joel McCrea, with David Niven, Stuart Erwin, Marjorie Weaver, Pauline Moore, Binnie Barnes and Jane Darwell in the cast.

Post Office Asks Bids For New Location In Des Plaines

Des Plaines post office is soliciting bids for a new location, according to the Des Plaines Journal. Bids will be opened August 3 and after that a Federal site agent will investigate the locations. A federal officer has already analyzed the work being done in the present post office building as a basis for determining the need for a new place.

The postmaster has been ordered to prepare a map showing the location of the present post office, areas of heaviest mail deliveries, business section, railroad station carrying the bulk of the mail, as well as other road stations and bus terminals, other factors which would effect the desirability of postal site.

Calling for bids in Des Plaines indicates that some neighboring communities may be disappointed in their expectations of receiving a new federal building this year since in the past it has not been customary to build more than one post office in a congressional district during any one year. However, the 280 public buildings planned in the current spending program may include a number of departures from this precedent.

MT. PROSPECT HEIR GETS PART OF $6,600 WILL

Mitchell C. Robin, clerk of the Probate court, reports that Mrs. Minnie Schuler, who died in Niles Center July 6, left an estate estimated to be worth $6,600. Her will just admitted to probate provides that after paying her funeral and other expenses the residue be divided equally between three sons, two daughters and a grandson.

The heirs are: William and Herman Schuler, Morton Grove, Albert

Schuler, Norwood Park, Anna Schram, Evanston, Emma Druekedt, Niles Center, and Willard Schuler, Mt. Prospect. A son, Frank Schuler, Mt. Prospect, is made executor, but not given anything by will.

Des Plaines To Get Sidewalks Repaired At One-Fourth Cost

W. P. A. aid has been enlisted in Des Plaines for repairing sidewalks at a less than one-fourth cost to the owners. Materials cost is the only price that the resident pays. Sidewalks repaired are 10 cents per square foot and 5 cents a square foot is charged for raising sunken walks.

REPEATS HOLE IN ONE

Vernon Scheskie, 977 Margaret avenue, Des Plaines, repeated a hole in one at the Rolling Green golf club last week. Scheskie's ace came on a seven iron shot at the 154 yard 11th hole. He has achieved holes in one twice before, in 1931 and in 1935.

PUBLIC SERVICE COMPANY

During these vacation days every driver of an automobile has an added responsibility—to watch out for those youngsters on the streets. Children listen to our warnings and instructions to be careful when crossing streets, but, as we all know, they forget very readily, and when they are engaged in a spirited game of tag our words of caution are completely erased from their minds. That is why we motorists must learn to anticipate seeing a boy or girl dash suddenly across the street without a sideward glance.

We often become impatient and angry with youngsters for these thoughtless acts, but remember, theirs is a carefree life. We cannot expect them to keep serious thoughts in mind constantly. Let's give the kids a break and be just a little more alert when we sit behind the wheel of our automobile. That is one way we can make life safer for our children.

Farms Practicing Erosion Control Make Most Money

Economist Compares Those That "Do" and Those That "Don't"

Although their crop acreages have been reduced and hay has replaced corn and grain on many fields, farms included in erosion control work conducted by the U. S. Soil Conservation Service made more money last year than similar farms not included, E. L. Sauer, agricultural economist of the Service, announced this week.

His statement is based on a farm business analysis of 123 farms in McLean county directed by Sauer and H. C. M. Case, head of the department of agricultural economics, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Included in the report was a statistical comparison of 30 farms having "complete" erosion control programs with 30 farms of similar acreage having no erosion control programs. On the controlled farms, the net return to the farmer for labor and management was more than twice as high as it was on uncontrolled farms—$1,280 a farm as compared with $589 a farm.

Although the cooperators in the Soil Conservation Service program may have been somewhat better farmers at the beginning of the study, results show that they have made more rapid progress than those who have not developed a well-planned program for operating their farms. While some of the difference may be attributed to such factors as amount and kind of livestock, efficiency of feeding, soil treatment, yields an acre and prices received, a careful analysis indicates that more than half the difference was a result of the soil conservation plan under which the farms are being operated.

Although the erosion control programs were not yet completely established on many of the cooperating farms, the report showed that application of lime and fertilizer and the use of strip cropping, terracing, and contour farming were reflected in higher yields although the reorganization of the cropping system had been in operation only three years at the time the study was made.

Cooperating farms yielded 6.8 bushels more corn an acre, 3.2 bushels more oats and 2.6 bushels more soybeans than the non-cooperating farms in 1937, the report stated.

"The study brings out the fact that erosion control and sound farm management coincide," Sauer said. "Conservation of soil not only prevents deterioration of the fields, but also results in marked increases in present income to the farmer, provided the conservation program is carefully planned."

Sour Soil Needs Fine Limestone For Best Results

Using coarsely ground limestone to sweeten sour soil is about like sprinkling rock salt on buttered roasting ears, says R. H. Bray, assistant chief, soil survey analysis, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

Perfectly limed land is land where just the right amount of fine lime has been added and has been used up, but in being used up has destroyed the acidity of the soil. Bray said as he explained that Illinois farmers who will probably spread 1,500,000 tons of limestone this year can save money by buying fine rather than coarse limestone.

Just as people would not enjoy roasting ears covered by excessive amounts of salt, so land reacts unfavorably to excessive amounts of limestone in large or small particles, he explained.

Market Quota On Corn Is Up To Weather

Whether or not the question of imposing a marketing quota on corn will be submitted to growers of the commercial area next fall will depend on the kind of weather we have in the corn belt within the next three to four weeks, H. R. Tolley, AAA Administrator told Farm Bureau leaders this week, reports the Illinois Agricultural Association.

If a marketing quota is voted by two-thirds of the growers, each would be asked to keep at home, under seal, his share of the surplus.

Speaking at the Farm Bureau Training School for the Middle West states held at LaFayette, Indiana, July 21, Tolley indicated that the early crop forecast for this year was close to the point, considering the corn carryover, at which the Secretary of Agriculture under the law would be required to submit the question in a referendum.

Earl C. Smith, president of the Illinois Agricultural Association who presided at the morning session, told the Farm Bureau leaders that it was the responsibility of the organization which had led in securing the enactment of the AAA to see that it was fairly and impartially administered and that weaknesses in the act are corrected as soon as possible.

Claude Wickard, AAA administrator for the north central division, said that next year, if he had anything to do with administration of the act, he would insist that the allotments be put out to each farmer well in advance of sowing and planting time. Another great need, he continued, is a more simplified program.

Wickard stated that participation in the program was expected to vary among the central states from 45 per cent to 75 per cent. South Dakota and Minnesota, he said, would probably have the highest percentage of participation, and Ohio the lowest. In Illinois, it was expected that participation would hit around 50 per cent or better. Illinois corn acreage this year was reduced about 1,000,000 acres from 1937, or approximately 12 per cent. If farmers expect to have an effective program, and not lose what they thus far have gained, greater participation and cooperation in making the plan effective would be needed, Wickard said.

Dairymen Follow Complete Program To Make Progress

Progress in developing a herd of high-producing dairy cattle is dependent upon many factors such as wise feeding, disease prevention and control, good management and a constructive breeding program, according to J. G. Cash, of the dairy department, College of Agriculture, University of Illinois.

That continuous record keeping is a further aid in improving Illinois dairy herds is shown by results obtained on 64 herds that last year finished 10 years of continuous testing in dairy herd improvement associations, Rhode said.

In general a definite improvement was shown with an average gain in production during the period of 37.6 pounds of butterfat a cow. However, a study of the individual herd records shows that unless all the factors that affect dairy herd progress are carried along together, the benefits that normally result from using production records may not be realized and a large part of the dairyman's life may be spent in correcting mistakes.

For example, despite the average increased production of 37.6 pounds of butterfat a cow for the entire 64 herds, 16 of the herds had a lower level of production in 1937 than they had 10 or more years earlier. Disease and herd size that transmitted low levels of production were responsible for the lack of progress in most instances.

One herd finished the first testing year in 1926 with an average of 316 pounds of butterfat a cow which was increased through culling and breeding to a peak average production of 356 pounds in 1933. A herd sire started the downward trend, his daughters averaging 366 pounds as compared with 385 for their dams. The 1937 average for the herd was only 241 pounds of butterfat a cow. Much of this decrease was attributed to another sire whose daughters averaged 299 pounds of fat as compared with 388 pounds for their dams.

To make progress and hold gains, dairymen have learned to follow a complete program, Cash pointed out. To prevent production losses caused by the use of poor sires, dairy farmers throughout Illinois in cooperation with the extension service of the College of Agriculture have organized 39 cooperative breeding associations.

THE CHAPLAIN'S CHAT

By Captain Todd

Does It Pay To Be Good

Crime doesn't pay, but Goodness does. Honesty is still the best policy, although Goodness does not always pay in dollars and cents. Christ did not say "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall have a million dollars," he said, "Blessed are the pure in heart for they shall see God." When Christ said, "My peace I leave with you. Not as the world giveth, give I unto you," he did not mean a peace that has to do with financial security, but rather a peace that comes from devotion to an ideal—a peace whose symbol is the cross. He said, "He who would be my disciple let him deny himself and follow me. In this world ye shall have tribulation!"

The reason the church today is not attracting more young people is that its appeal is too soft. It seems to say to them "Subscribe to our doctrines and we will keep you out of trouble, we will keep you safe." The young folk are not are not looking for safety, they are looking for adventure. They fail to find in the church the same stimulating challenge which they find in the world outside. They must be taught that Christ did not come to make life easy, He came to make men great.

North Side Pole Climbers defeated the South Side Lamp Busters in a very close ball game by a score of 424 to 0, game being called in the first inning after 9 hours and 54 min. of play on account of a riot. Opposing pitcher Smith claims Dawson never had his foot on the rubber, cheating him out of a no hit game. Empire Brownell called game no contest and will be replayed on Sunday, Aug. 21, picnic day.

Watch for the riot, all spectators will be searched for fire arms and clubs.

P. S.—The reason Mr. Payne had no errors is he was to fat to stoop and all his plays had to be covered by Speed Demon Schroeder. End of P. S.

PROSPECT HEIGHTS

by MARCELLA SOBOWICK AND JANE PAYNE

A birthday party was given last week in honor of the Kelseys grandson. Those who attended were Betty Shaaf, Billy and Alice Lancaster and Mrs. Lancaster. Prizes were won by Betty Shaaf and Billy Lancaster. An enjoyable time was had by all who attended.

Mr. and Mrs. Shaaf and family spent an enjoyable evening last Tuesday with Mr. and Mrs. Thiemeyer of Park Ridge.

Mrs. H. C. Torreyson is overly ambitious these days, having canned eighteen pints of pees, fifty-four pints of peas, and thirty-two pints of beans.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Torreyson spent an enjoyable day at the races Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Neagles took their niece, Joanne Crowe, to the rodeo at Camp Mishawaka. They had a wonderful time.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence R. Johnson entertained Mr. and Mrs. A. Altenhouse of Maywood, last Friday. Mr. and Mrs. Grasshauser were guests at the Johnson home last week.

Smith and Dawson of Prospect Heights seem to have taken our challenge about beating Des Plaines for they have sold five houses and six lots over the week-end.

Mr. and Mrs. Lancaster and family visited Mr. and Mrs. M. Reese last Sunday at Druce Lake. Mrs. M. Reese is a sister-in-law to Mrs. Lancaster.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Menefee of Chicago, father and mother of Mrs. Rodgers, are visiting with the Rodgers all week. Peter Rodgers, having suffered from an infected toe, is feeling much better.

Mrs. G. Jacobs, sister-in-law of Mrs. Schroeder, spent Tuesday in Prospect Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Shepherd entertained Mr. and Mrs. J. K. Smith of Edgewater Beach at a dinner last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Bach and their daughter, Arlene of Logan Square, were visiting the Millers last Sunday. The community is very disappointed for not having been invited to the fireworks display.

I wonder if it is known that we have a sports notable with us. He is none other than Mr. Percy Collins, who is the former World's Amateur champion billiards player and a resident of Prospect Heights.

Mother and father of Mrs. Cowlings spent the week-end at the Cowling's home. They all attended the wedding of Gladys Holland and Robert Brown, Saturday night. Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Moore returned home to Harvard, Ill.

Mrs. Demsey and family will attend a luncheon and swimming party on the North Shore, Wednesday.

Mrs. Demsey is entertaining her daughter, Mrs. J. Murphy of Burlington, Wisconsin. Mrs. Murphy is a former WLS radio star.

The Krause family entertained Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Fester of Chicago, Mrs. Mary, Lavene DeWolf, and Mr. Don Smith of Chicago. After lunch they all enjoyed a game of golf at Old Orchard.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Hasselman of Oak Park entertained Mr. and Mrs. Collins at a dinner last Wednesday. Reserve Sunday the twenty-first of August, for Prospect Heights Community picnic. Free games and prizes for all.

Mrs. Viola Danielson and her two children, Dorothy and Billy and friends in the city, spent Wednesday picnicking at Riverview Park.

Come, Bill Danielson, get off that sick list, we need you for our baseball game on picnic day, Aug. 21.

Mr. and Mrs. William, do you know of any party that slept in a car near a railroad track last week?

Who, at the Sobowick's, is waving at all cars going by? Sure enough, it is Ed's sister Sally, who is vacationing at Prospect Heights.

Mr. and Mrs. Lou Jennrich were pleasantly surprised when the following friends and relatives visited them, Sunday, Mrs. Jennrich's mother and father, Mr. and Mrs. Samples, her brother, Mr. Walter Yaeger, Mr. Jennrich's brother and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Jennrich and Miss Lillian Jennrich, also Mrs. Larson mother of Mrs. Arthur Jennrich, all of Park Ridge; Mr. and Mrs. N. Romensko of Norwood Park, and Mr. L. Jackwerth and Miss R. Hada of Chicago. All had a grand time playing croquet and what have you.

WHO'S WHO

Mr. and Mrs. Portman of Prospect Heights were both born in Chicago. They moved to Prospect Heights from Elmhurst, Ill. The Portmans enjoy Prospect Heights so much that they refused to leave for their summer home in Michigan, where they have been accustomed to go each year. They have two children, Charles, who is nine years of age and Joan, four years old. Another member of the family is an Irish terrier named Patsy. Before Mr. and Mrs. Portman were married, both worked for the Continental Bank in the trust department. One day Mrs. Portman, who was at that time Miss Ruth Schiller, walked into Mr. Portman's department, little cupid was on the scene and from that time on, Mr. and Mrs. was the name.

Mr. Portman is on his vacation. They attended the Arlington Heights carnival the other night, but did not win the new automobile. One day was spent at Lake Zurich. They attended the races last Friday, played golf at Old Orchard Tuesday. The heavy rains gave the Portman's hopes of having a nice lawn.

Mrs. Portman's hobby is her two children, while Mr. Portman's hobby is art. Mr. Portman attended the Art Institute for some time, so we will look forward to a painting for our Community hall. Prepare, Mr. Portman.

Since the Portmans moved to Prospect Heights, a new pet has been acquired, a dog, but thus far it is nameless. Maybe someone will help them name it.

Mr. Portman is in the sales department covering the southwest section of Chicago, for the Renard Linoleum and Rug company, with offices at Merchandise Mart.

Child Health Station A Necessity; Will Meet Again Aug. 4

The regular monthly Child Health Station will be held at the school gym next week Thursday, Aug. 4, from 1:30 to 3:30 p. m. All mothers with children under 6 years of age are invited to bring their children for a free consultation with Dr. Franklin Cook, child specialist from the Cook County Public Health Service.

It is a regrettable fact that our community had not arranged for this station before, which might have averted the tragedy which visited one of the homes of the village in the deaths of the Landmeier children. A part of the program of such a station is the promotion of immunization for such diseases as diphtheria, which, because of the newness of the station, had not been attempted as yet.

Wheeling Young Ladies Return From Michigan Lodge of Presbytery

The Misses Marilyn Miller and Eloise Kruse of Wheeling, returned home Saturday evening tired but happy with pleasant memories of a week spent with 200 young people from the Presbytery churches of Chicago Presbytery at the annual Young People's Conference held at Westminster Lodge near Saugatuck, Michigan.

Selected young people from the ages of 15 to 23 years of age are delegates to this conference. Leaders are outstanding workers with young people from various churches of the Presbytery including pastors and directors of Christian Education.

Mornings are spent in classes where a variety of subjects of vital interest to Christian youth are discussed. Each delegate attends three classes each morning and credits are given at the end of the week to those who participate satisfactorily in the classes.

With the exception of a period for rest and study, the afternoons are given over to recreation including swimming, tennis, treasure hunts, hikes, etc. Special excursions for the week were a visit to Saugatuck, a hike to Singapore, the city covered by sand, and a climb up Mount Baldy, a mountain of sand, one of the largest of its kind.

The evening schedule included vespers just after supper, followed by various types of a social hour. A brief devotional in each cottage closed the intensive program of the day at about 10 p. m. and lights were out at 10:30.

The delegates were housed in cottages holding from 8 to 15 delegates with an adult counselor in each cottage. The conference was co-educational, about one third of the group young men and remainder young women. Westminster Lodge is a summer camp maintained by Chicago Presbytery where various types of conferences are held. A part of the camp is also used for summer outings for the underprivileged from neighborhood houses of the Presbytery. Cottages at the camp may also be rented for private use by church families.
